Boats Present:

- Chardonnay – Les and Jan
- Cheeky – Aaron and Teta
- R and R – Rick and Rose
- Siesta Key – Bill and Linda
- Tetifton – Peter and Kouka

Friday evening all five boats arrived safe and sound, for those of us coming over from the mainland a relatively calm crossing. It was R and R's first cruise with the Fraser Squadron. Rick and Rose were kind enough to invite everyone on board for snacks and refreshment. We shared stories and generally had a very pleasant evening. It rained off and on with a real downpour over night.

Saturday morning, the weather cleared up enough for us to have coffee and goodies on the dock. Thanks Al and June for organizing the coffee. Les and Jan handed out the scavenger hunt lists. We spent the day gathering up fifteen different items and met around 3:30 to tally up the results. Les and Jan hosted this get together on board the Chardonnay. Les mixed up Margaritas, tallied up the results and Jan organized the prizes. We were entertained by the scavenger hunt results, especially the love letters.

Sunday morning Jan and Les were under way by 6am the rest of us slept in and met on the dock again for coffee and goodies.

We listened to the weather forecast and were all under way by 12:30pm.

Thanks to everyone for making this weekend a success.

To my Best Friend

We have walked together for more than 30 years
Like a roller coaster ride, there's been ups and downs
Filled with laughter, joy and tears.

Hand in hand each hurdle has been like a grain of sand
Passing through an hourglass
Leaving only traces of something bland

The greatest gifts we have been given
Are three most precious duckys
Without them in our lives we would have Really not been so lucky.

So all I say to you my love
Is Thank-You for the ride
If I had to do it all again
I'd fly with you by my side

From
Your best friend
XXX OOO

3rd Place – Cheeky – Aaron and Teta
Dearest Tetifton

You are my one and only True Love.
Never will I float away from you
When you spin your big prop my hull is all a flutter.

I don't care how many twin screw
Babelines tied next to me
You will always be my one and only
All my love and devotion
Love Cheeky

P.S. On Sunday, see you in Georgia Strait and I will ride your wake all the way home.

Genoa Bay Cruise

Submitted by Alan Rudolf

The largest turn-out for the year was for the Aug 19 and 20 Genoa Bay Cruise, with the following boats- R & R, Invicta1, Alberta Lee, Siesta Key, Shangrila, Four Buoys, CuNaMara, Carina, T for Two, Oden and Chardonnay.

Coffee on the dock graciously provided by June and Alan each morning. Rose and Rick kindly provided a supplement of orange juice and champagne. A big bocci tournament took place on Saturday with Barb of the Invicta and Cheech from the CuNaMara the winners the picture shows Rick, Alberta, June and Keith hard at work. The other picture is "happy hour" at the dock. We also had a numbered draw with prizes for everyone.

Another highlight of the weekend was the crab fishing-best crabbers were Leo from Shangrila and George from Four Buoys. Worst crabbing award went to Bill Hawryluk of Siesta Key. Most enthusiastic crabber was Alberta who had a trap in the water whilst Alan was still securing the dock lines.

Maple Bay Cruise

Submitted by Alan Rudolf

A small but enthusiastic group turned out for some nice boating weather for July 01 and 02 weekends at Maple Bay. Participants were the Invicta1, T for Two, Tetifton and Alberta Lee. A spirited game of bocci ball was held on Saturday with the team of Alan and Alberta emerging victorious. We enjoyed dinner together at the dockside pub that evening. The other photo included a happy Peter Lefroy, probably relieved that he made it safely across the Strait or could it be that the Alberta Lee did not damage his boat upon docking. Dave and Barb from the Invicta look on in the background.
