Puzzle Corner
What is it? Where is it?

The answer to the puzzle corner

The picture is the cover of a dart board. A member of the AYC was visiting England. He was in Ye Olde Englishe Pub and found that it was now under the control of a Republican Publican. Thus the dartboard image of the King was deposed and was about to be banished to Landfill Land. Moving rapidly, this modern Pimpernel paid the King's Ransom of two pounds, obtained refugee status, and secured permanent residence for the King's Head on the wall which backs on to the coat cupboard at AYC. Here it remained in obscurity until "outed" by the eagle eye of a photographer.

Passing of Andrew (Andy) Conley

The editor was recently informed of the passing of Andrew Conley on Saturday, February 9, 2008. His son Bruce writes:

"My Dad pursued his love of boating and boat building all his life and was a member of the Fraser Squadron through the 1990's. He taught and proctored many Power Squadron courses over the years and was proud in March, 1995, to receive his 20th Merit Mark and Life Membership in the organization.

My Dad's longtime companion, Audrey McLeod, also served a term as Commander. I know that their association with the Fraser Squadron was a great source of joy and friendship for both of them."

Our condolences to Andrew's family and friends.
